Zootaxa publishes peer-reviewed papers/monographs within 1 month of acceptance, free of page charge, without restriction on length, but with gratis e-reprint to authors.

This journal is a primary source of information on the descriptions, interpretations and analyses of zoological diversity in the world. Papers and monographs published in Zootaxa are essential references for any library that supports research in biodiversity, conservation, systematics, ecology, evolution, phylogeny, zoology, parasitology, behaviour, natural resources research and policy-making, environmental protection and management.

Each issue is individually titled and priced and is available both in the print and online editions. Standing orders to the series are invited. Standing order for a subset of papers (e.g. issues on insects) is also welcome. Purchase of individual titles can also be made at any time.

Standing order

Orders can be placed by e-mail with purchase order number or by mail. Issues are delivered as soon as they are published, but payment can be made later. Payment can be paid from pro forma or invoice to libraries, research institutes, companies or other organizations/individuals quarterly to annually.

Access to the online edition is by IP filtering. Print issues are sent by airmail to subscribers.

Individual paper purchase

PDFs are delivered by e-mail and print issues delivered by airmail after payment is received.

Price for the print edition

Cost of each paper varies with its size. The basic rate is US$1.60 for every 4 pages with a minimum fee of US$4.00 per paper. A discount of 50% is offered to standing orders from individuals. Delivery charge is extra.

Price for online edition

Cost of each paper varies with its size. The basic rate is US$0.40 for every 4 pages with a minimum fee of US$4.00 per paper. A discount of 50% is offered to standing orders from individuals.
